

AAAS 100

PATHWAYS TO AFRICAN AMERICAN AND AFRICAN STUDIES

FALL 2022
TUES & THURS

MELANCON
SEC 001: 10:20–11:40 AM

KWAKYE
SEC 002: 3:00–4:20 PM

This three-credit course will cover current trends and topics in African American and African Studies. AAAS 100 explores the Black experience from several perspectives: history, politics, economics, art, sociology, psychology, religion, and culture. In addition, this course allows for students with both nascent and developed interest in Black studies to delve deeper into their intellectual passions.

TO ENROLL, VISIT:
student.msu.edu

Department of African American and African Studies
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY