

IF COMPUTER IS ASSIGNED TO AN INDIVIDUAL

In this case, the end user will want what is called a Creative Cloud Named User License.

This license is assigned an end user's email address and has several benefits

- It can be signed into two computers at the same time
- One of those computers can be a personal computer, but one of the sign-ins must be on a departmental computer
- This license is transferrable – meaning, if a person in the department leaves, the license can be transferred to a new user's email address for the rest of the contract year
 - Contact the MSU Tech Store at techstore@msu.edu with questions on how to transfer a license
