

The College of Arts & Letters
Community Partner Award
(Faculty Nominee Application)

APPLICATION DUE FEBRUARY 25

DESCRIPTION:

The College of Arts & Letters Community Partner Award (Faculty) recognizes a CAL faculty member's community contributions at the local, state, national and or global/world levels. It recognizes participation, student mentorship and overall leadership, as well as and significant involvement as is reflected in one or more community engagement activities. This award is linked to the spirit of Bolder by Design to "enrich community, economic and family life".

NOMINATION PROCESS:

1. A letter of nomination should be submitted by an individual with knowledge of the faculty member's distinguished contributions in the area of community engagement. This nomination should describe the faculty member's activity or activities in which he/she is involved, the nature of the involvement, the level of mentorship and overall leadership as well as the impact the faculty member is making through his/her role within the community as a whole. Nominator can include, but are not limited to: fellow faculty member, department chair, student, community partner, or service learning partner.
2. Nominations must be submitted by February 25 to the CAL Alumni Relations Office (101 Linton Hall).
3. In recognition of the faculty member's outstanding contributions in the area of community engagement the faculty member will receive a plaque and a $500 award.
